A clear roadmap for launching a academic or non-academic career.

Learn how to successfully navigate a job search in academic or beyond.

Not sure what you can do with your PhD?

Explore your career options and learn how to leverage your skills and experience in non-academic careers.

Live workshops and conferences.

Get access to live, online events to help you explore career options and learn from other PhDs.

I'm grateful for the supportive and practical resources the platform offers. It can be overwhelming to navigate career options after a PhD, but the platform made the process feel more manageable and empowering.

Thank you for creating a space that helps trainees feel seen, supported, and prepared for career transitions.
